

Centre for
Environmental Rights
Advancing Environmental Rights in South Africa

Environmental Rights Seminar Life After Coal: Accelerating the transition from coal to renewable energy

Monday, 24 October 2016, 09h00-17h00
Venue: The Townhouse Hotel, 60 Corporation St, Cape Town

8h30-9h15	Arrival, registration, tea	(45 mins)
9h15-10h15	Welcome and introductions Why we should quit coal: impacts on health, climate and environment	Robyn Hugo (CER Programme Head: Pollution & Climate Change) (1 hour)
10h15-11h15	Understanding the risks of stranded energy assets in South Africa	Jesse Burton (UCT's Energy Research Centre) (1 hour)
11h15-11h30	Tea break	(15 mins)
11h30-12h30	How Socially Responsible Investing relates to renewable energy investment and why following these principles will not negatively impact returns	Peta Chennells (Senior Investment Analyst Mergence Investment Managers (Pty) Ltd) (1 hour)
12h30-13h15	Lunch break	(45 mins)
13h15-14h15	Making sense of energy in a chaotic environment	Chris Yelland (MD of EE Publishers) (1 hour)

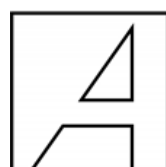

Konrad
Adenauer
Stiftung

Centre for
Environmental Rights
Advancing Environmental Rights in South Africa

14h15-15h15	How new high-fidelity wind and solar photo-voltaic data for South Africa enables renewables-based planning	Tobias Bischof-Niemz (Head of CSIR's Energy Centre) (1 hour)
15h15-15h30	Tea break	(15 mins)
15h30-16h30	The role local government can play in the transition from fossil fuel to renewable energy	Zanie Cilliers (Project Co-ordinator Sustainable Energy Africa) (1 hour)
16h30-16h45	Closing	(15 mins)

Konrad
Adenauer
Stiftung